BUFFALO, NY. Friday, December 13, 2019 – Newly appointed Apostolic Administrator of the Diocese of Buffalo, Bishop Edward Scharfenberger of Albany has, in recent days, made multiple troubling statements about clergy sexual abuse:

- 1.) That in spite of only cursory knowledge of the Diocese of Buffalo he is poised to declare bankruptcy here in the face of a record number of filings of the Child Victims Act against the Diocese of Buffalo.
- 2.) That while in possession of the Report to the Vatican conducted by Bishop DiMarzio of Brooklyn into recently resigned Bishop Malone of Buffalo, Scharfenberger is constrained by a foreign power from sharing that report with the community of Western New York he now serves on behalf of Pope Francis.
- 3.) That only the second instance of a Vos Estis case in the United States is being managed not in Albany, but by Cardinal Dolan, into the retired bishop of Albany.
